

TOWN OF WARRENTON

POLICE DEPARTMENT

PRESS RELEASE

On Friday, June 17, 2016 Mr. Eric Evan Miller, a 51 year old black male (DOB 4/10/65) and resident of Fauquier County, called in a threat about a food bank in Warrenton, Virginia to the U.S. Department of Justice. Mr. Miller stated he felt harassed by the manager of Fauquier Community Food Bank located at 249 E. Shirley Avenue. Mr. Miller stated he was going to kill everyone inside and had committed similar acts in the past of which the Federal Bureau of Investigation was aware. A representative of the Department of Justice called the Warrenton/Fauquier Joint Communications Center and relayed the information about the threat. Officers responded to 249 E. Shirley Avenue and contacted Mr. Miller who was inside the store. Mr. Miller was taken into custody without incident and charged with making threats by telephone. No weapons were found on Mr. Miller. Mr. Miller was held without bond and trespassed from the property.

Mr. Miller has a history of extreme behavior including delusions of being a federal agent, statements that the federal government is surveilling him, and that he is working for the federal government as an informant. He has prior arrests for felony assault, trespassing, burglary, carrying concealed weapons, and possessing stolen property. He has been detained for mental evaluations in the past.

If you come in contact with Mr. Miller please use extreme caution as his behavior is unpredictable.

Anyone with any information about this crime or the suspect should contact Sergeant Tim Carter of the Warrenton Police Department at 540-347-1107 ext. 224 or tcarter@warrentonva.gov.
